Course Description

Course on the advanced micro-/nano machined metamaterials and their applications for radio frequency (RF)/microwave and optical devices such as waveguides, filters, antennas, optical lens, meta-optics, and analog computing (3 credit hours)

Course Pre-Requisites / Co-Requisites

EEL 3472 Electromagnetic Fields and Applications, and EEL 3111C Circuits 1, Co-requisites: None

Course Objectives
To understand the metamaterial concept and the advanced microfabrication processes, and apply them for the design and implementation of compact and power efficient RF/microwave and optical devices.

Materials and Supply Fees

N/A

Required Textbooks and Software

Recommended book:

1. Title: Metamaterials: Physics and Engineering Explorations
   Author: Nader Engheta and Richard W. Ziolkowski, Edited by Publication date and edition: 2006, IEEE Press and Wiley-Interscience
   ISBN number: 0471761028 9780471761020

Software:

High Frequency Structure Simulator (HFSS, ANSYS Inc.) and Manual
COMSOL Multiphysics Simulation Tools (COMSOL, Inc.) and Manual

Recommended Materials

Books:

David M. Pozar, Microwave Engineering, 3rd edition, Wiley, 2005
Ricardo Marques, Ferran Martin, and Mario Sorolla, Metamaterials with Negative Parameters: Theory, Design and Microwave Applications, 2008, Wiley
Christophe Caloz and Tatsuo Itoh, Electromagnetic Metamaterials, Wiley-Interscience, 2006

Course Schedule

Introduction (w1)
Resonant Metamaterials and Plasmonics (w2, 3)
Term Project Due (Apr. 23rd)

Attendance Policy, Class Expectations, and Make-Up Policy

Excused absences must be consistent with university policies in the Graduate Catalog (https://catalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations) and require appropriate documentation. Additional information can be found here: https://gradcatalog.ufl.edu/graduate/regulations.

Evaluation of Grades

Assessment Guidance from the ECE Graduate Committee: Course evaluation components should include:

1. At least one component that individually evaluates each student’s understanding of course material and ability to apply concepts.
2. At least one evaluation activity that takes place in class.
3. When a project is involved, evaluation rubrics should be explicitly stated.
4. When team work is expected, individual student contribution verification method should be explicitly stated.

If an in-class exam is administered then 1 and 2 are fulfilled. In the case of a project, a project report that is graded per the stated evaluation rubrics and states which work was done by each student in the project team will address both 3 and 4.

EEE 5467 has computer software based simulation and design homework and a term project. Term project reports are required.

This course is co-listed with the graduate class. The homework portion of the graduate section may involve additional work and more advanced concepts with respect to the undergraduate section. The exams would involve additional questions for the graduate section with respect to the undergraduate section. Grading for the homework and projects are different from the undergraduate course. The graduate and undergraduate sections will be graded separately, for which the graduate section could additional problems and different weights for all problems. The final project shall be on the topics of metamaterials and their applications learned throughout the course, and consist of the following parts: (i) Motivation / Background, (ii) Technical Approach (iii) Results, (iv) Discussions, and (v) Conclusions. It will be graded according to the following percentages: 30% for parts (i), 45% for parts (ii) and (iii), 25% for parts (iv) and (v). Parts (i) and (iv) shall include discussions on relations and comparisons between metamaterial and other approaches, which need to be comprehensive.

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting [https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/Links to an external site.]. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at [https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/Links to an external site.]. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via [https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/Links to an external site.]. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at [https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/Links to an external site.].

In-Class Recording
Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-conduct-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Commitment to a Safe and Inclusive Learning Environment

The Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering values varied perspectives and lived experiences within our community and is committed to supporting the University’s core values, including the elimination of discrimination. It is expected that every person in this class will treat one another with dignity and respect regardless of race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information, and veteran status.

If you feel like your performance in class is being impacted by discrimination or harassment of any kind, please contact your instructor or any of the following:

- Your academic advisor or Graduate Program Coordinator
- HWCOE Human Resources, 352-392-0904, student-support-hr@eng.ufl.edu
- Curtis Taylor, Associate Dean of Student Affairs, 352-392-2177, taylor@eng.ufl.edu
- Toshikazu Nishida, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, 352-392-0943, nishida@eng.ufl.edu

Software Use

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against University policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate. We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to uphold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

Student Privacy

There are federal laws protecting your privacy with regards to grades earned in courses and on individual assignments. For more information, please see: https://registrar.ufl.edu/ferpa.htmlLinks to an external site.

Campus Resources:

Health and Wellness

U Matter, We Care:

Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress. A nighttime and weekend crisis counselor is available by phone at 352-392-1575. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to, Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.
